FASHION'S latitude is wide--from the Petit Kepi to the combined contours of the "Rembrandt" and "Gainsborough." The martial note is evidenced in the Shako and Monjik types. The Tudor Turban, the Polonaise Toque, the Capeline, Canotier and Palatte Sailors, are all shown here.

PRISONERS WILL BUILD ROADS FOR HOMESTEADERS OF HAIKU

For the relief of the homesteaders in the Haiku district on Maui Superintendent Charles R. Forbes is sending to that island by the steamer Claudia this afternoon 25 able-bodied long-term prisoners from Oahu prison, who will be put to work at once on a three and one-half mile stretch of roadway, reconstructing, grading and crowning it. The job probably will require two or three months' work.

It is thus Superintendent Forbes intends helping the citizens of the unfortunate pineapple district solve the good-roads, or rather, "bad roads" problem. He returned only last Tuesday from a tour over the Valley island, and says he doubts whether worse going is to be found anywhere in the territory, even on Oahu, than he encountered in the Haiku district, where he was forced to travel on horseback and his mount frequently mired to the shoulders.

The convict road labor idea has been heartily approved by the Maui county supervisors, who have agreed to furnish the provisions and implements for the workmen and pay the salaries of two lunas who will have charge of the squads and direct their energies. High Sheriff Jarrett has proved complaisant, and the territory assumes the expense of transportation for the prisoners from Honolulu to Maui, as well as the expense of Eddie Keoloha and Jack Kahunakala, the prison guards who will escort the party to Kahului. From that point the Kahului Railroad Company has agreed to transport the men to the scene of their future operation, and to bring them back to Kahului when the labor is finished.

In addition W. A. Baldwin, manager of the Haiku Fruit and Packing Company, has consented to supply houses, fuel and water for the convicts.

Because of the incessant heavy rains since the early part of the year the roadways at Pauwala and Kapukalua, Haiku, have grown more and more impassable, until Superintendent Forbes says the citizens have found it virtually impossible to leave their homes since March 8. The mire was so deep and treacherous that persons danger threatened every one who went beyond the gate of his home, either afoot or on horseback.

WEIGHTY LAND BUSINESS DONE BY COMMISSION

Sidesteps "Shoot-the-Chutes" Scheme Offered By Harry Murray

A petition from Harry E. Murray for permission to establish a "shoot-the-shutes" of modern construction in Nuuanu stream at Ala park, was presented to the board of land commissioners yesterday by the chief commissioner, J. D. Tucker. Doubting its authority in the matter the board referred the petition back to Mr. Murray with the suggestion that he secure the approval of the board of supervisors, the city engineer, the superintendent of public works and the harbor commissioners.

Approval was voted to an exchange between the department of public instruction and Dr. J. H. Raymond of a schoolhouse site for a slaughter-house site on the island of Maui.

O. T. Shipman's application for a grazing lease of 14,000 acres in Puna was granted, at a rental of $250 per annum for 15 years, under condition of fencing off the adjoining forest reserve. Another lease of grazing land on a lava flow in the same district was granted to Henry Lyman for 15 years at $50 per annum.

The board approved of the proposal of the harbor commissioners to make new land at the mouth of Nuuanu stream.

License was granted to the Watanabe Company to use 14 acres of land, occupied by flumes and reservoirs, for 21 years at $5 an acre annually. An application of the same company, backed by Mr. Tucker's recommendation, for a 5-year lease of 512 acres at $5 an acre, was opposed by J. F. Brown, J. W. Waldron and W. H. C. Campbell and denied, the decision being put the lease up at auction at an upset rental of $7.50 an acre per annum for five years.

Approval was voted to the sale of the government's equity in the two lots and building occupied by the First National Bank of Hilo. Mr. Campbell, W. C. Wilder and Bruce Cartwright, Jr., spoke in favor of the proposition. This property will be auctioned at an upset price of $27,000. It is subject to two leases with 13 years to run, at a rental of $700 per annum.

A meeting of the members of Honolulu Lodge No. 616, B. P. O. E., will be held at 7:30 o'clock this evening in the Elks' hall, King, near Fort street.

NEW SECRETARY FOR Y. W. C. A. IS AN ARRIVAL HERE

Miss C. C. Varney Comes to Take Position Directing Economic Work

Miss Cora Charlotte Varney, the long-looked-for economic secretary of the Young Women's Christian Association, has at last arrived. She came on the Matsonia on Tuesday and has already looked the field over and got into the work.

Miss Varney has had a varied experience, having been in business for herself, later taking the year's course at the National Training School of the Young Women's Christian Association in New York City, from which place she went to take the general secretaryship of the thriving association in Everett, Washington.

Miss Varney was obliged to give this work up after a year's service, because of ill health, but later went as economic secretary into one of the largest associations in the world, that of Los Angeles. There she had charge of their cafeteria. The board members and secretaries are very glad to welcome Miss Varney to their ranks.

COLLEGE OF HAWAII. The Saturday morning class in botany conducted by Mr. Rock will meet at 8:15 at the Tenth avenue corner of the Kaimuki car line for an excursion to lower Palolo.

Bull Moose Quits Race. Because his prospective campaign expense was greater than he could bear J. E. Kekipi, the lone Progressive candidate for city and county supervisor, yesterday withdrew his name from the list. There probably will be no Progressive aspirant for supervisor at the November election. It is understood that before withdrawing his name Kekipi had a confidential business chat with George R. Carter, titular head of the Roosevelt party in the territory. Apparently Carter was unable to help the candidate to solve the pecuniary problem.

Circuit Judge Robinson this morning denied the petition of Mrs. Emma Kahibaum for a divorce from William Kahibaum and granted the cross libel of the husband, who alleged his wife had committed statutory offenses. The wife made a similar charge against the husband, adding that of non-support. The suit was hotly contested and its trial continued throughout yesterday afternoon and a part of this morning's session.

Mrs. Lucy de Cotto has filed in circuit court her second petition for a divorce from Manuel V. de Cotto. Her first petition, filed in April, 1912, was dismissed the following month, and on her appeal to the supreme court the lower court's action was sustained. She also is asking temporary alimony pending the conclusion of the second suit.
